

2018 Source Protection Year In Review

- ✓ 2018: Land conservation and protection of 7,000 acres of high priority water supply lands
- ✓ 2018: US Farm Bill Changes to dedicate funding to be targeted within source water protection areas in NH
- ✓ 2018: Implementation of US EPA MS4 permit requirements to prioritize identification and mitigation of “illicit discharges” into sources and source water protection areas within MS4 towns.
- ✓ 2018: American Water Infrastructure Act changes to EPCRA to require immediate notification of spills/release to state/local responders & make Tier II reports available to Public Water Systems